ValidLs is ruining my life

ValidLs, which i think most of you will recognize, just floods my Twitter with negativity and transphobia relentlessly.

You're all probably hoping they'll get banned and canceled, but no. nobody will ban them for their hate speech against our people, it's just a hopeless battle against them.

A friend of mine said "maybe they'll stop talking about you if you stop doing weird and creepy stuff," and when i asked what, he said "like the grooming stuff with kids."

Pedo is just their go-to accusation. and obviously groomers are bad, but it's not the same as trans kids transitioning. it got my friend to keep his little sister away from me.

Kill the hate and shut down transphobia, ban it and cancel it and suspend it, that's what everyone says. but elon is on their side, probably helps run the account. it'll never happen.

Your families and your friends might be posted on there, you don't ever know. it's just scary saying anything because they could make fun of you and shit, it's giving me paranoia about them.

Self loathing is what they want, and i know that, we just can't let them. don't let yourself get down, girls! we'll be okay even if it's realt hard, trans rights will win (i hope!!) and we'll feel better. i hope i do.

Was actually feeling bad for the person before reading the "helping kids transition" bit 🤔
